

Savings, Opportunities, Assets, Results (SOAR)

Impacting Central Texas Families

Education is expensive, but what is not going back to school costing you? Lower Salary? Reduced Job Satisfaction?

The United Way is here to reduce the burden for eligible savers with the cost of tuition, books, and required school supplies.

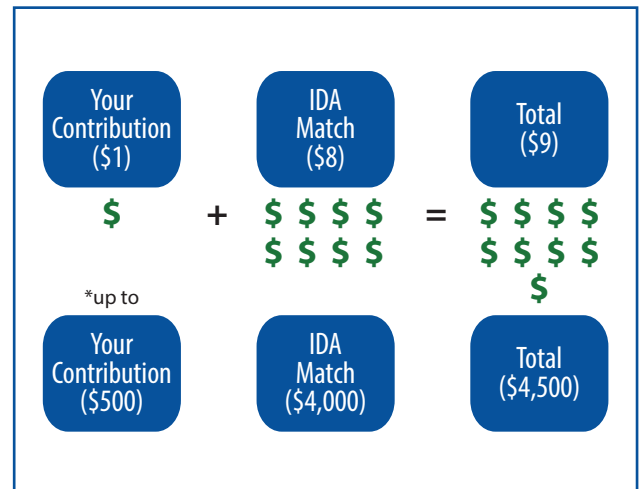

United Way of Central Texas SOAR Collaborative pairs Financial Literacy classes with an 8-to-1 financial savings match. For every dollar you put towards your education, the United Way of Central Texas will pay eight dollars (maximum match $4,000.) The money is stored in a savings account. When you have reached your savings goal, the United Way will write a check to the educational institution of your choice to pay for tuition, fees, or eligible supplies.

*For more information or to see if you qualify, please contact UWCT
Director of Community Services at (254) 778-8616*

"Because of the United Way of Central Texas SOAR Collaborative, I now have the hope to send my children to college."

-Maria

To be eligible, participants must have earned income (a job), be receiving TANF, or have received the Earned Income Tax Credit/Be under 200% Federal Poverty Level and have less than $10,000 in assets.

Community Collaborative

SOAR clients are identified through United Way community partners. The SOAR Collaborative is made possible with community partnerships:

- Extraco Banks
- Central Texas Housing Consortium
- Helping Hands Ministry
- Fort Hood Area Habitat for Humanity
- The City of Temple
- U.S. Department of Health and Human Services

604 N 3rd St | Temple, TX | 76501
www.UWCT.org | info@uwct.org | (254) 778-8616